GRAND COMPLIMENT.-Last evening a the Old Theatre the band of the 16th U. S. Regulars, in consideration of the benfit of our old friend Wood BENSON, played both inside and outside of the theatre, and gave the greatest delight to the visitors, of the season. We must say it was a grand compliment to the beneficiary, as they kindly vol untecred their services, showing the esteem in which he is held by all classes of our community. Lieutenant LILLY, as master of the band, deserves the highest compliments for the able manner in which he conducted his corps. A more recherche treat we have not experienced for some time.

ALL ABOUT A PLATE. - JANE SWANSON colored, and Mrs. FARRELL got into a war of words about the ownership of a plate. Very bad language was used by both parties, the white woman evidently out-talking the negress. Judge Fosten fined the former $9, and the latter $5.

How Among Negroes.-Last Sunday night, WILLIAM ALLOWAY, a hack driver stopped his vehicle in front of SUMNEE's tippling saloon, and was accosted by JULIA Parrish, a notorious negro prostitute, who wanted to engage his hack for yesterday evening. During the conversation, she said her "man," JOHN CARTER, had given her a "h-l of a beating" Saturday night. He made some reply, when CARTER, who hap- DISEASES OF WOMEN. paned to be standing near by, stepped up and an altercation took place between hir and Alloway. They were separated. Can-TER, excited no doubt by jealousy, gave Julia a back-handed lick, and was immediately knocked down by J. H. SUMNER, who, assisted by his brother, W. A. SUMNER, gave the woman-whipper a complete drubbing. The four men were arrested and carried before the Recorder, and were yesterday morning heavily fined. JULIA PARRISH was subsequently arreste for lewdness, and fined $9.

MARGARET BEARD, colored, for slapping a ittle white child, was yesterday fined $9 by the Recorder.

SOLDIERS IN COURT.-Three members of the 16th Regulars were up before Recorder FOSTER, yesterday morning. JOHN DONALD was picked up drunk and asleep on the street. He was charged $9 for his lodging MARK SMITH, who says he has only been in the service two months, and with tears in his eyes begged the mercy of the Judge, was assessed $9 for being drunk and disorderly in Smokey Row. WM. BRADY was hunting his "chum," and in his endeavors to find him, got on the out-side of too much riflewhisky. He was picked up on Cherry street, and had $9 set opposite his name. Toppling on the Subbath .- George Baffe, three warrants, $9 on each. Mr. R. also assumed the penalty of three cases against his barkeeper, $9 in each case. THE article published in the city papers ome two weeks since, in which Gen. JAMES P. BROWNLOW figured conspicuously, we are convinced, did that gentleman great injustice. Mr. BROWNLOW has returned to the city, and stands ready to await any charges that may be brought against him. A friend of his states that instead of riding around the city the day before the warrant was issued, as stated in the papers, he had only engaged the carriage to accompany a lady friend to the depot, and on arriving peace warrant cases were tried in this court, there, the backman charged him an exhorbitant price, which he refused to pay.
